

BOMBAY. ENTRANCE TO ELEPHANTA CAVES.

Copyright London

Raphael Tuck & Sons' WIDE - WIDE - WORLD

ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTY THE KING & QUEEN

BOMBAY

Postcard No. 8970

By Appointment

LL9774

TUCK'S POST CARD

CARTE POSTALE

Entrance to Elephanta Caves. The caves are to be found on the Island of Elephanta which is situated about 6 miles from Bombay and are entered by a good flight of stone steps, constructed in 1854 at a cost of Rs 12,000 by Curramsee Ramlall, the head of the Lohanna Caste.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

CTPA13.9

Printed in England

BOMBAY. ENTRANCE TO ELEPHANTA CAVES.

BOMBAY

Raphael Tuck & Sons' WIDE - WORLD - POSTCARD

Copyright © Pearson Education, Inc.

Printed in England

By Appointment

514

ART PUBLISHED TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN

Entrance to Elephanta Caves. The caves are to be found on the Island of Elephanta which is situated about 12 miles from Bombay and are reached by a good light stone steps, constructed in 1854 at a cost of Rs 12,000 by Curramsee Ramlal, the head of the Lohanna Caste.

With best wishes for a happy birthday from,
Margaret

TUCK'S POSTCARD

CARTE POSTALE

11 15 24
(FOR ADDRESS ONLY)

6 JUN 21

Miss Annie White
12? 21? Greening Street,
Abbey Wood,
S.E.2.

CTPA 12.9